

Hazardous Materials First Responder: Awareness Refresher Quiz

NAME _____ DEPARTMENT _____ DATE _____

Directions: Circle or write in the most correct answer in the space provided for each question.

1. What type of Road Trailer is the following trailer? DOT _____

2. What type of material is it carrying? _____

3. What Guide number would you use if you saw this trailer? _____

4. If the trailer is on fire, how far away do you initially isolate (evacuate)? _____

5. Which is the biggest hazard with the material on this trailer? Health or Fire/Explosion (Circle one)

6. What is the material associated with the placard to the right?

7. What is the guide number? _____

8. Is it safe to inhale? YES NO

9. As an immediate precautionary measure, isolate spill or leak for how many feet in all directions?

10. If it is determined that it is a large spill of this material from a highway tank truck, what is the Initial Isolation Distance?

_____ feet

11. If the spill is during daylight hours with a moderate wind, what is the downwind distance that the public should be protected?

_____ miles

12. What guide number would you refer to if you saw a serious accident with the following truck? _____

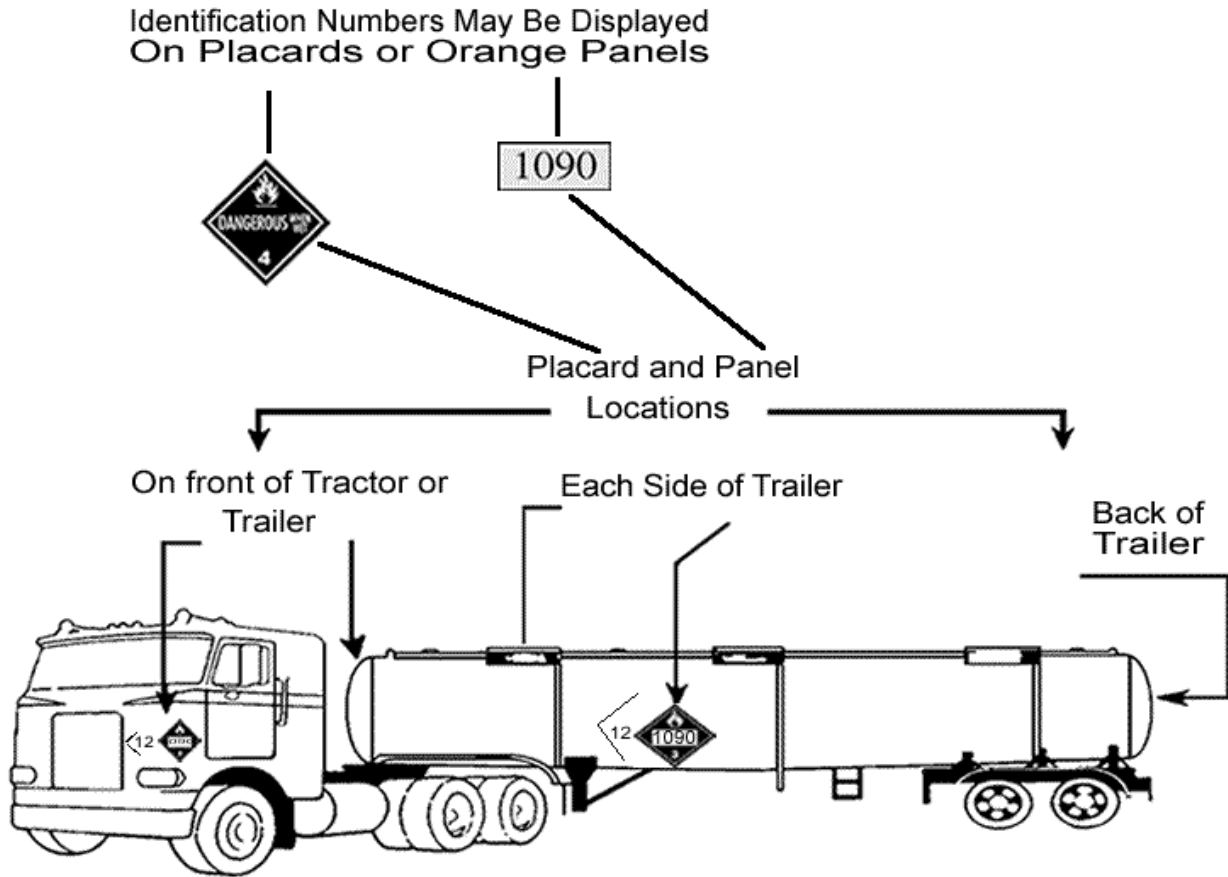

Figure 9-2 Placard and Panel Locations

13. If there is a large spill from this transport, how far away do you initially evacuate? _____

14. If there is a spill or leak, what should you eliminate on scene? _____

15. What common product does this  represent? _____?

16. Which Zone is the Command Post located in? COLD WARM HOT

17. Besides Dispatch, other Law Enforcement units, and the local Fire Department, who else should be notified if this product is leaking? (Name at least three).