

Waldo County Emergency Management Agency
(207) 338-3870

Damage Assessment and Reporting Quiz

Name
Department/Agency
Date

1) A Disaster is a dangerous event that causes:

- significant human and economic loss beyond local resources
- the President to automatically declare a Disaster Declaration
- economic hardship for all involved

2) The Town should only complete a damage assessment, when directed to by the State EMA office.

- Yes
- No

3) The Local Emergency Management Director should always be involved in the damage assessment process.

- Yes
- No

4) To calculate a damage assessment, you should consider using: (select all that apply)

- Maine DOT Wage Rates
- FEMA Schedule of Equipment Rates
- Lists of local costs of road materials
- Existing municipal road contracts
- Lists of the contractors who are closely related to the Chair of the Selectboard

5) Taking lots of pictures of the damages will be very beneficial when the FEMA project specialists show up.

- Yes
- No

Send your Quiz to: ema@waldocountyme.gov ; fax (207) 338-3870
or by postal mail: 4 Public Safety Way, Belfast, ME 04915 to receive a certificate.

Waldo County Emergency Management Agency
(207) 338-3870

6) The Town Officials should collect private damage information from residents.

- Yes
- No

7) The Public Assistance Preliminary Damage Assessment Form is a State EMA form for collecting damage assessment data.

- Yes
- No

8) Once completed, you should send Preliminary Damage Assessment Forms to: (select all that apply)

- The Town Insurance Carrier
- The County EMA office
- The County Communications Center
- FEMA

Send your Quiz to: ema@waldocountyme.gov ; fax (207) 338-3870
or by postal mail: 4 Public Safety Way, Belfast, ME 04915 to receive a certificate.